

First QENS data of guide performance, Sept 9, 2003 - AM

The peaks are the current (black, with guide) and previous (red, without guide) inelastic spectra and the inset is a gain factor estimated from intensities of the diffraction detectors. The inelastic spectra are more representative to QENS applications. This is a first dataset from vanadium runs. More careful calibrations are now underway.